Exploring a unique artistic treasure trove

Faenza is synonym of the world of ceramics, but first and foremost is it a place where the art of ceramics has created indissoluble bonds between new and old. The town itself is full of masterpieces: the impressive Piazza del Popolo, the Art Gallery (Pinacoteca), the Masini Theatre, the small Piazza Nenni or Piazza della Molinella, the elegant frescoed buildings of the historic town centre as well as the schools and institutes of ceramics that attract artists and students from all over the world.

Ceramics

Faenza's artistic ceramics tradition goes back centuries and today, thanks to its artisans, it continues to play a major part as an expression of top level art and craft. Faenza's production fame is such that majolica is known all over the world under the name of "faience" (pottery glaze) and the International Museum of Ceramics certainly deserves a visit. The Museum, which in 2011 was awarded the title "Monument that bears witness to a culture of peace", showcases the culture and history of ceramics in the five continents up to modern and contemporary times, including works by major artists such as Picasso, Henri Matisse, Marc Chagall, Fernand Léger and Fontana.

Out of town

The area surrounding Faenza is the perfect destination for nature lovers and tourists alike, who can explore beautiful villages full of history, architecture and landscapes. A few kilometres away from Faenza, in the direction of Florence, lies Bisighella, at the foot of three pinnacles of chalk upon which stand the Rocca Manfredi fortress, the Clock Tower and the Sanctuary of Monticino. Bisighella is a medieval town and ranks among the most beautiful in Italy; it is famous for its “Via degli Asini” (Donkeys’ Way) and the D.O.P. certified extra-virgin olive oil of the same name. Not far from Bisighella, nature lovers can explore the wonders of Carné Natural Park and Vena del Gesso (Chalk Vein) thanks to many trails winding among vineyards, steep valleys and stunning views.
